United Airlines International Flight Change Policy

United Airlines offers flexible options for modifying international flights, but fees and policies vary based on ticket type and destination:

- Basic Economy Tickets: Generally, these tickets are non-changeable and non-refundable.
- Standard Economy & Premium Economy: Change fees may apply, depending on the fare class and route.
- Business & First Class: More flexible change policies with minimal or no fees.
- Award Tickets: Changes may be subject to mileage differences and processing fees.

How Much Does It Cost to Change an International Flight?

Change fees for international flights depend on various factors, including:

- Destination and route (some regions have different policies)
- Time before departure (last-minute changes may incur higher fees)
- Fare type (flexible tickets may allow free modifications)
- Availability of new flights (fare differences may apply)
